

Traffic jam

- Dad Laura, we're stuck!
- Mum Not again. It's Friday afternoon. I want to get home.
It's not a good idea to go to work by car.
The underground is quicker. It would even be quicker to go by bike.
- Dad Call the children and tell them we're stuck.
- Mum Can I use your mobile?
- Dad Sure! Listen! Can you hear the sirens?
What is going on?
- Mum It could be a police car, an ambulance or the fire brigade. It is the fire brigade. Move! Drive to the side!
- Dad I can't with these big lorries and buses next to me.
- Mum We can't move out of the way! What shall we do?
