

A tough job for a tough girl

Clara loves her job. She is a police officer and she works in London.

A police officer must be strong and brave. She doesn't carry a gun, but she can use one if she needs to. It can be a dangerous job. And she must be out on the streets in all kinds of weather.

She practises boxing in the gym, she goes to karate and she goes cycling every day. She knows how to fight, but she doesn't want to. She wants to help and protect people.

She often teaches traffic rules in schools. Boys and girls gather round her when she turns up on her shiny black police motorcycle. They listen when she speaks. She thinks she has a fantastic job.
